

Mayor Hylan decorating the police honor men at the reviewing stand in Madison square, an annual ceremony on Police Parade Day.
Central News Service.

Above — These police sharpshooters are world war veterans marching past THE NEW YORK HERALD offices in the annual parade May 7 last. The men made an unusually fine appearance.
By a New York Herald staff photographer

Germany's renewed activity in aviation is a source of worry to many students of international politics. Photograph taken at the Sablatyng works near Johannisthal shows a newest model plane flying over ruins of partly destroyed war machines.
Underwood & Underwood.

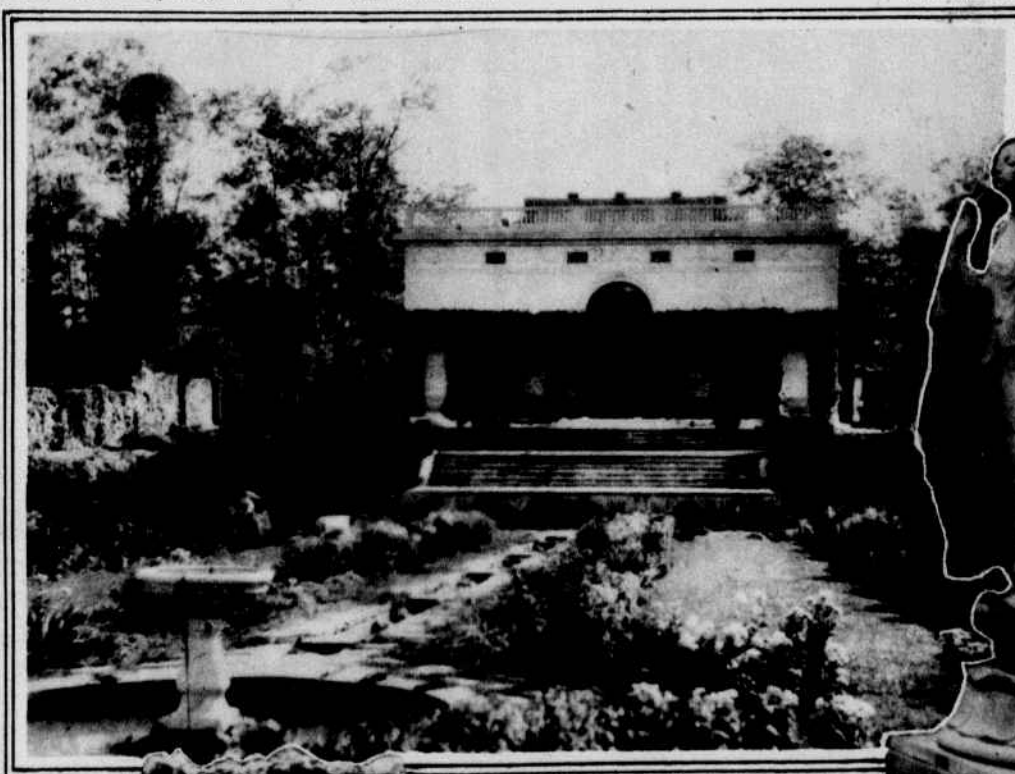

Above—Germany is making great efforts to foster outdoor sport, but with little success, as this picture shows. Here are 3,000 contestants in the spring meet at Berlin, but see the empty seats in the vast stadium.
Underwood & Underwood.

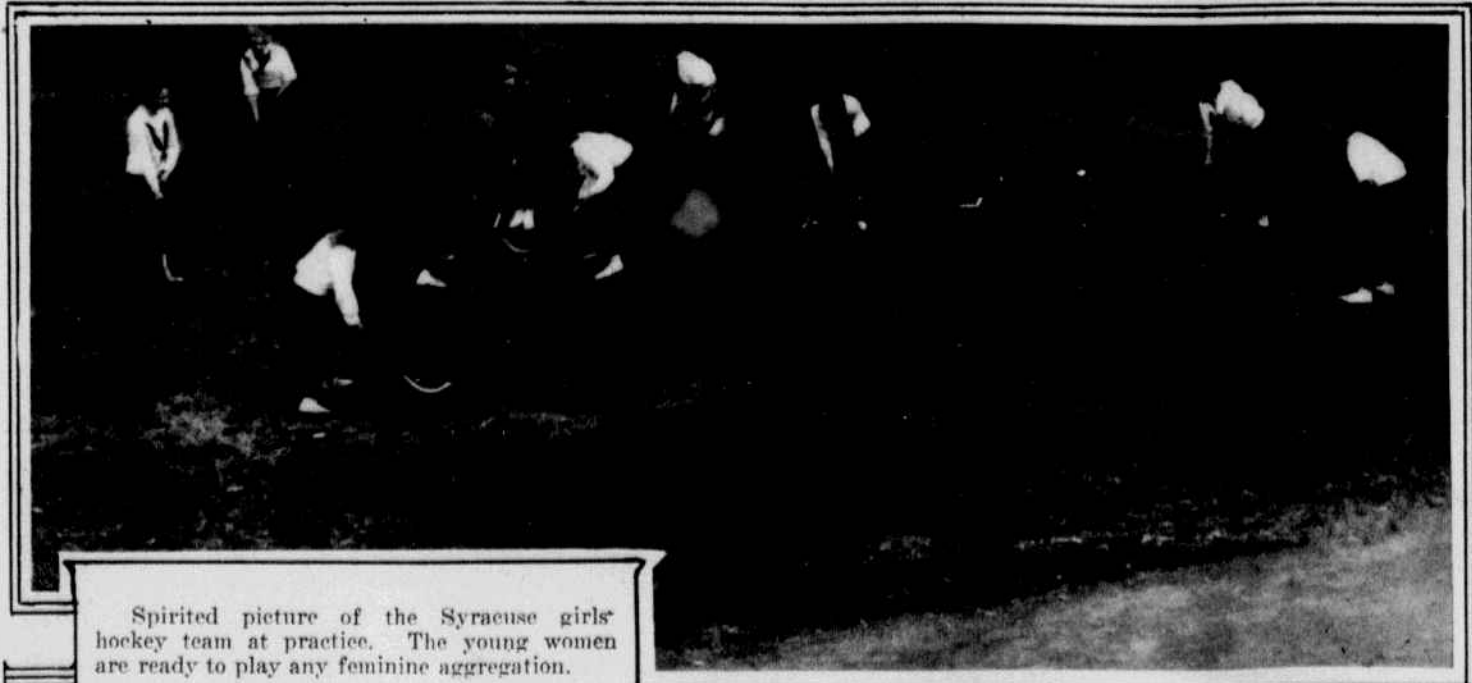

At right—Frankie Bailey, long an idol of Broadway, reappears in a new role. On the stage she was noted for her beautiful figure; now she is making a record as a Salvation Army collector.
International.

Major Ranulf Compton, who resigned as military secretary to Gov. Miller to become Assistant Secretary of State.

Roman villa and garden at Wheatley Hills, L. I., used by Mrs. Henry Payne Whitney as a studio. The bits of sculpture shown herewith are part of her exhibition in Paris. At the left is a bust for the Titanic memorial bought by the French Government; the fountain is considered one of her best works, and at the right is another recent statue.
Kadel & Herbert.

Spirited picture of the Syracuse girls hockey team at practice. The young women are ready to play any feminine aggregation.

New Design Duo-Tone Reed Chair
Reg. $75
Sale Price $52.75

Wicker Craft Shop
370 Lexington Ave.
at 41st St.

Four Piece Suite
$265

Sale of REED furniture—
New and Exclusive designs in Suites—and single pieces at

GREAT REDUCTIONS

Special—Four piece suite—Old Gold and Blue finish—antique finish table—5 feet long. Six foot settee. Regular Price $400—Sale Price $265.

Correction.
THE NEW YORK HERALD on May 8 printed a picture of the Princess Vlora of Albania, and by inadvertence gave as her maiden name "Edith" Kelly. Princess Vlora was Miss "Helen" Kelly.